eight white rectangles

We exhibit « eight white rectangles » by Jun KOSHINO from January 25, 2014.

KOSHINO expresses the relationship between time, space and how we recognize it by casein tempera.

In 2012, his works were rectangular compositions, which are aluminum thin boards colored with two-tone casein tempera.

This time he intends to harmonize the idea and his works, which was expressed in Suprematism “Die Gegenstandslose Welt” by Kazimir Malevich.
