Galerie Ashiya Schule is pleased to present Garden of The Phase, the group show by Midori Terashima and Yoshihiro Kishimoto from June 22 through July 20, 2019.

Midori Terashima, born in Kyoto (1972), graduated from the Kyoto City University of Arts graduate school in 1998(MFA course). Midori Terashima is developing her own world of abstract painting through an experimental approach to the sense of sight. Using a form of expression of the pluralistic sense of memory and the scenery within an environment, Terashima's works are characterized by vivid colors and speedy strokes. Her images are condensed time and they require this same stretched out time from the viewer.

Yoshihiro Kishimoto was born in Kobe in 1968. He was graduated from a graduate school of Musashino Art University. Yoshihiro Kishimoto has quickly distinguished himself through the use of encaustic paintings. Kishimoto's works are expressional abstract paintings composed of horizontal and vertical stripes competing with ground region, while fractions of scenery sneak into various lines and faces.

Both share the idea of nature, which, in other words, the coexistence of various beings ranging from minimal elements to infinite universe. The works influence one another and reconstruct a new world in broad perspective. They will try to incite the viewer's own pleasure in seeing, and make this image shareable.
